PICK OF THE CROP—GEO. M. SNOOK & CO.

"PICK OF THE CROP,"

Or a better expression would be "Choice of the Season's Production," but it matters little what we call it, our idea is to get you interested in this announcement. We want to explain to you that it has been a part of our business policy to secure the Best Things Produced. This we can only do by making EARLY PURCHASES, sometimes months before the goods are wanted. Our new Spring and Summer Goods are now arriving. They are select, fresh and attractive, and placing these on sale now, will in no wise interfere with our Grand Clearance of winter stock, previous to removal.

OUR Half Price Sale,
As advertised last week, still continues.

Specially worthy of attention are the following: Figured India Silks, Fine Pattern Dresses, Bedford Whip Cord and Plain Weave Suitings, Black and Cream Silk Laces in demi flounce and narrow match widths, Cambric Nainsook, Mull and Swiss Embroideries in matched and unmatched widths, Giffon Laces, all colors, the cheapest Lace Curtain stock ever shown, French and American Dress Cinghams, Outing Cloths, the well-made "W" brand of Muslin Underwear, and many other goods.

Twenty-five shades and mixtures of A. W. Novelty Cheviot Suitings at $3.50 a pattern.

We advise our patrons to do as we do: Buy Early and Secure Choice!

Taken to His Home.

Joseph E. Gee, who a month or so ago broke his thigh bone on the Keystone State and was sent to the hospital here as a marine patient, was yesterday removed in the city patrol wagon from the hospital to the Panhandle train and sent to his home at Monongahela, Pa. His leg was not healed, but he insisted on going home at whatever risk.

Circuit Court.

In the circuit court yesterday, in the appeal case of Martin McLaughlin vs. Hiram Teater, judgment was rendered for the plaintiff in $75. In the case of John Koch vs. Joseph Herden, a new appeal bond was directed to be made, the former surety being dead. In the chancery cause of John S. Wilson et al. vs. Isabella Wilson et al., a decree was entered confirming the sale of real estate.

A Sad Death.

Dana B., a bright nine-year-old son of John E. and Kate Hubbard Bowers, of East Liverpool, O., formerly of Wheeling, died on Saturday last. Mr. Bowers has been quite sick with the grip for two weeks and Mrs. Bowers is threatened with diphtheria, both being unable to attend the funeral yesterday. Their many friends in Wheeling and vicinity will be sorry to learn of their affliction.

Transfers Recorded.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record transfers of real estate as follows:

November 14, by Mrs. Elizabeth Hyding and others to Mary A. Davis, for $5, three feet and eight inches of ground in the Hyding addition.

January 21, by H. D. Shriver and wife to Lucy M. McGregor, for $3,500, lot 192 and the south half of the adjoining river lot, on North Front street, Island.

A Small Assignment.

J. L. Frank yesterday assigned to John A. Howard for the benefit of his creditors, all the goods and chattels of every kind owned by said Frank, including all the stock of pictures, frames, moldings, etc., in his stores at 1729 and 1735 Market street. After the expenses of the trust and liens are paid off the remainder of the proceeds is to be paid to Frank's creditors pro rata. The assets are about $950 and the liabilities about the same.

A Lovely Corner.

One of the nastiest looking places in the city is the north side of Twenty-ninth street, at the corner of Eoff. For the distance of half a square going north the street is ankle deep in mud, and on neither side is there a pavement. The best way to get from the corner of Twenty-eighth and Eoff streets is to go down to the corner of Chapline and Twenty-eighth streets, thence along Chapline street to Twenty-ninth, up Twenty-ninth to Eoff, making a journey of three blocks to make a trip of one.

To Tell the Grand Jury.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Devine yesterday took William Williams to Parkersburg to testify before the grand jury of the U. S. court, now in session there, in the case of the mail box robbery which he confessed, implicating Ed Taylor also. The mail locks broken were also taken down to be used as evidence and one or two officials went along.

Considerable doubt is expressed as to whether the locks could have been broken in the manner described by Williams, and he will be given a chance to demonstrate it by actual trial before the case is finished.

Arrested at Parkersburg.

Chief McNichol yesterday received from Captain Mehen, of Parkersburg, a request to arrest a Union newsboy who had "filimammed" a passenger on the Ohio River train out of $5. Lieutenant Gans went to the morning train, and the boy aboard said the boy who had came up the night before was named Dietz and that he was at the hotel asleep. Gans went to the hotel and there learned that Sam Henderson, the boy on the down train, was the one who was wanted. He telegraphed to Parkersburg and Mehen arrested Henderson when the train arrived and recovered the money.

Can Save One Eye.

The many friends of Ralph Whitehead will be glad to learn that he has received from Dr. Chisholm, the eminent oculist of Baltimore, an assurance that one of his injured eyes can be saved. Mr. Whitehead left last week for New York, hoping to see Dr. Knapp there and have an operation performed, but the doctor was away, and he therefore went on to Baltimore, where after an examination, Dr. Chisholm agreed to perform an operation to save the sight of one eye. The tickets for the benefit to be tendered to Mr. Whitehead by his fellow employees in the post-office at the Opera House, February 11, are selling well. The postoffice employees and letter carriers have them, and persons desiring to buy may secure them from any member of the force.

The Most Pleasant Way of preventing the grippe, colds, headaches, and fevers is to use the liquid laxative remedy Syrup of Figs, whenever the system needs a gentle, yet effective cleansing. LAST WILL OF CHARLES FREMDER

Admitted to Probate and Ordered to be Recorded—Small Bequests to a Methodist Orphan Asylum and the New City Hospital—Relatives Liberally Remembered.

The last will and testament of Charles Fremder, deceased, who was a well known house painter living south of the creek, has been filed for probate with Clerk Hook, and the hearing set for February 17. It is an interesting document, and contains a number of bequests of a character rare for Wheeling.

He leaves to his wife the two-story brick house on the east side of Market street south of Twenty-second, with all household goods and personal belongings, $1,000 of life insurance, $2,000 in money, ten shares of stock in the Ohio Valley bank, six shares in the Wheeling & Belmont bridge company, and five shares in the Exchange bank. She is to receive also during her life the income of all the rest of his estate.

To his sister, Mrs. Henrietta Albrecht, of Covington, Ky., he leaves after his wife's death, twenty-three shares of Citizens' Railway stock and three shares of Ohio Valley Bank stock; to his nephew, Theodore Ebeling, of Bellaire, a house and lot; to Lewis Ebeling, five shares of German Fire Insurance stock, on conditions, and to another nephew $75 in cash and a note for $400, and to a niece $450 in cash, all this, however, to go to their mother, Emilie Ebeling, of Bellaire, during her life.

To the M. E. orphan asylum at Berea, O., he leaves two shares of Wheeling and Belmont bridge stock, and a like bequest to the new Citizens' Hospital, of Wheeling, and to Gen. Ballington Booth $2,000 in Hobbs glass company stock, city bonds and United States bonds, to be by him applied as he deems best for the advancement of the Salvation Army.

Mrs. Fremder and George Mall are named as executors. The will bears date of April 9, 1891, and is witnessed by James McAdams and C. A. Schaefer.

A codicil directs that all legacies be paid in full within twenty days after the death of his wife.

A CREDIT TO THE CITY.

A Metropolitan Office Building with all the Modern Improvements, Centrally Located.

The work of putting the latest steam heating appliances in the five-story Reilly building at Fourteenth and Market streets is well advanced, and with this very great improvement this edifice is more than ever before entitled to the appellation of the finest office building in the city. In fact it is not only this, but its advantages are manifold and striking. In addition to steam heat losses will have the advantage of a high-speed Otis elevator, the services of a competent janitor, and the eastern and southern light so greatly desired by business men, while the central location of the building, it being on the leading business street, but a square away from the heart of the wholesale and jobbing district, and handy to hotels and depots, with two lines of electric cars passing the doors, makes it especially desirable for professional and business men. The building will be used exclusively for office purposes, and about twenty apartments are available, of various sizes and at different rentals, making it easy to suit all classes of business and professional tenants. Some of these apartments are at once available and others can be had on April 1.

In point of location, of convenience, of access and of arrangement, of stylish and comfortable fittings, and of all that in this day is considered necessary to make an office building complete, there can be no superior in Wheeling to the Reilly block. Persons who want the best location for offices should call on J. V. Reilly, agent, at M. Reilly's wholesale grocery store, in time to have a choice of apartments.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS WORK.

Encouraging Report of the Department President of West Virginia.

Mrs. Amanda L. Murdock, Department President of the Woman's Relief Corps of this State, returned home Sunday evening on the steamer Keystone State, after an absence of more than two weeks, having been engaged in the inspection and installation of Woman's Relief Corps in the State. Mrs. Murdock also instituted a Corps Auxiliary to Bailey Post, G. A. R., at Huntington, W. Va., there being thirty-four charter members at the organization.

This new corps starts off with unusually bright prospects, being composed of ladies of education and intelligence, who will rapidly advance the work in that part of the State.

The installation services at Charleston and Huntington were followed by a reception and banquet to the Department President, and the visiting ladies from Ironton, Mrs. Sample, Mrs. Authurs, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Pease, members of Lambert Corps, No. 115, W. R. C., Department of Ohio, who kindly assisted in the institution and installation services.
